Storm Strikes Florida Coast

Hurricane Winds Hammer Island City Of Key West

Gales Spread Out Over
Southern Florida As Far
North As Miami

STORM HEADS FOR MAINLAND COAST

(BULLETIN)
MIAMI, Sept. 21.—(INS)—A full-blown 110-mile-an-hour hurricane battered the island city of Key West today and churned up dangerous high tides that swept over shorelines along the Florida Keys. Hurricane winds smashed against the entire chain of islets in the picturesque keys group at mid-morning, with Key West clocking the highest blast—110 miles an hour. Sustained gales of 60 miles an hour raged across Miami as the tropical storm that spun over Cuba last night swung toward the southeast "gold coast" of the winter tourist state with increased fury.

MIAMI, Sept. 21.—Strong hurricane winds and high tides hammered the island city of Key West today and rain-soaked gales spread out over southern Florida as far north as Miami.

Key West weather observers reported winds up to 95 miles an hour in gusts, with sustained blasts blowing at a steady 75 miles an hour as the Caribbean hurricane shrieked into extreme south Florida.

Tree-flattening winds of 100 miles an hour were due to strike Key West shortly after noon (EST).

Barometer Dropping
The barometer was dropping fast all through the chain of islands of the keys group and up the southeast mainland coast as the storm roared northward.

Pa Newc Observes

Today is the one hundred sixty-fourth anniversary of the first daily newspaper in the United States.

Notice one may find in Lawrence county where a hailing system of rolling up the hay in cylindrical bundles is being used.

With 25 traffic fatalities for the current year already recorded in Lawrence county, there are indications that all records of previous years are being far eclipsed. During 1947 the total number of traffic fatalities in the county was 12.

Apparently the week-end storms caused a lot of barn burning in western Pennsylvania. In addition to the fires in this immediate district, Pa Newc notes reports of at least four barns being burned in the Meadville-Waterford district.

Leaf-raking is getting under way on a large scale in this city. Pa Newc discovers. From now on for the next few weeks falling leaves will keep property owners and city employees busy cleaning them from properties and streets.

A sign warning motorists of the traffic light they are approaching has been erected on Butler avenue just east of Ray street. The sign (Continued on Page Two)

Storm Lashes Road At Miami Beach

Path Of Hurricane Indicated

At Miami Beach heavy waves lashed the road at Baker's Manover as a hurricane picked up speed to put extreme South Florida in the danger zone. The hurricane roaring out of the Caribbean Sea lashed across the island of Cuba toward Havana. The Weather Bureau said it would probably hit Miami today.

Map to left indicates path of hurricane with shaded circle at center bounding western Cuba, Havana, and Key West and Miami where storm warnings have been issued. Inset in map (upper right) is artist's conception of the counter-clockwise wind pattern of the hurricane. The "eye", or center of the storm, is an area of dead calm. Winds around the center reach 100-per-hour velocity.

Red Political Offensive In Far East Seen

By JOHN A. REICHMANN
WASHINGTON, Sept. 21.—Diplomatic quarters in Washington today foresee a strong political offensive developing in the Far East under Soviet tutelage.

Such an offensive is believed to distract the attention of the Western Powers from the European front. Some top observers believe it is aimed at weakening the United States efforts at the reconstruction of Europe.

The latest specific charge of Communist activity came from Netherlands Foreign Minister Udo Strikker just before leaving Washington to return to The Hague. He flatly charged that Indonesians long absent from the home islands have been trained in Moscow and, working with Nationalist elements, are sabotaging efforts to bring about peace in the dispute there.

The United States has long expressed interest in restoring normal conditions in Indonesia in order to have strategic stockpiles of materials released for world reconstruction.

Strikker pointed out that these Communist upsurges are not confined to the Netherlands Indies. He recalled reports of similar activity in other lands, such as Burma, Malaya and Siam.

WEATHERMAN HAS EXCELLENT RECORD

PITTSBURGH, Sept. 21.—(INS)—The Pittsburgh weatherman is as "right as rain" just about.

At least, the amateur weatherman of Pittsburgh found after conducting an eight-week test that the Pittsburgh Weather Bureau, under the direction of Henry Backwood, has been 87.3 percent right.

This compares, club officials said, with a national average of 85 percent right.

Of All Troops From Germany

(BULLETIN)
BERLIN, Sept. 21.—(INS)—Informed sources in Berlin predicted today that the Russians at United Nations sessions in Paris will call for the withdrawal of all occupation troops from Germany.

Soviet circles at the same time hinted that the Russians might quit the U. N. if one Berlin issue is discussed at the meeting of the General Assembly.

Taegliche Rundschau, newspaper of the Soviet occupation force, cited the announced plans of Russia to withdraw from Korea an effort to prove that only the Soviets are backing the national self-interests of both Korea and Germany.

The Soviet organ accused the Americans and British of seeking to colonize both nations.

Public Hearings In Atomic Probe May Be Halted

WASHINGTON, Sept. 21.—(INS)—The House Un-American Activities Committee today considered shelving public hearings and clamping down a cloak of secrecy on its Soviet atomic espionage probe.

Rep. McDowell (R) Pa., acting chair, revealed that the committee is apprehensive lest any atomic secrets be revealed during the questioning of American scientists. The Pennsylvaniaian stated that the committee therefore may decide to forego public hearings, already twice postponed, and issue instead a report detailing carefully screened evidence and findings.

A decision may be reached Wednesday.

The committee has been holding closed-door hearings for more than two weeks during which approximately two-score witnesses have testified. It has practically completed its investigation and now is engaged in winding up the atomic espionage phase of its work.

'Tokyo Rose' To Arrive Saturday

Los Angeles-born Mrs. D'Aquino is in custody aboard the U. S. Army transport General Hodges. U. S. Attorney Frank J. Hennessy announced in San Francisco yesterday that the ship is sailing three days ahead of schedule.

A Federal Grand Jury in San Francisco will be requested on October 6 to indict Mrs. D'Aquino on treason charges specifying that, during the war, she served the interests of Japan.

Blame Russia For Deadlock On Berlin Issue

Charge Soviet Failure To Keep Promise On Monetary Reform Cause

By KINGSBURY SMITH
(European General Manager I. N. S.)

PARIS, Sept. 21.—Authoritative diplomatic sources revealed to International News Service today that Soviet failure to keep a promise on monetary reform led to the deadlock in Berlin.

An original agreement providing for four-power control of a single Soviet currency in Berlin in exchange for lifting of the blockade was not fulfilled.

Drifted Into Crisis

As a result, the deadlock drifted into the crisis stage.

A well-informed source said today that the western Allies now are considering the possibility of sending a joint note to the Soviet government warning that unless Russia stops stalling on Berlin the whole problem will be referred to the United Nations.

Great Britain and France are inclined to favor such a move, which would in any case postpone a showdown and keep alive the entire question of four-power administration in Berlin.

With leading world statesmen assembled in Paris for opening of the third U. N. assembly session, informed circles were able to disclose some hitherto unknown facts regarding the crucial Berlin situation.

Violation of Agreement

These sources said that the United States government considers Soviet tactics constituted a violation of Russian Premier Stalin's original agreement with western envoys at the start of negotiations.

The American position is that the Moscow action represents such an act of bad faith as to raise the question of whether any useful purpose will be served by pursuing negotiations further.

It is this question which the foreign ministers of America, Britain and France gave consideration yesterday and will continue to discuss today.

U. S. Secretary of State Marshall, at his meeting with British Foreign Secretary Bevin and French Foreign Minister Robert Schuman, was said to favor termination of the talks with Moscow. He is described as wanting to refer the Berlin problem to the United Nations.

Bevin and Schuman, however, are inclined toward a further effort at negotiations, fearing that a total breakdown of talks with Russia will greatly intensify the gravity of the international situation.

Paris Delegates Hear Attack On Rule By Force

Plea Is Made For Compre-

DELEGATES FROM
58 NATIONS ATTEND

By KINGSBURY SMITH
(European General Manager I. N. S.)

PARIS, Sept. 21.—The United Nations General Assembly convened in Paris today and heard an attack on Communist rule by force and a plea for a compromise solution in Palestine.

U. S. Secretary of State Marshall called for settlement of the Holy Land problem by an "imposed peace" embodying recognition of Israel.

This was the plan put forward by U. N. Mediator Count Folke Bernadotte in his last "progress report" before he was slain by Jewish extremists in Jerusalem. Countess Bernadotte was killed before Marshall endorsed the plan.

ELECT PRESIDENT
PARIS, Sept. 21.—(INS)—The Assembly's first formal action was to elect Herbert V. Ewart, foreign minister of Australia, as its president.

There had been speculation that the honor would go to Dr. Jose Arana of Argentina, who presided at the last special session on Palestine.

Bernadotte proposal, Foreign Minister Juan Arana Bramuglia delivered the opening address. He condemned "government by force," forecast an appeal for Spain's entry to the U. N. and recommended (Continued on Page Two)

Stern Gang To Change Tactics

Liquidation Report Seen As Move To Forestall Action By Israeli

TEL AVIV, Sept. 21.—(INS)—The terroristic Stern gang in Palestine was reported today to announce its own liquidation in an effort to forestall action by the Israeli government.

The step by the Sternists, accused of the assassination of United Nations Mediator Count Folke Bernadotte, was anticipated after issuance of an Israeli government proclamation banning the group as a "terrorist organization."

The Stern group's newspaper, Mivrah, was reported closed down and the building confiscated.

The number of arrests in the round-up of possible suspects in connection with the murder of Bernadotte rose meanwhile to 300. Most of those in custody were considered small-time, with the key terrorists still at large.

Informed quarters said that they forecast a dissolution move by the Sternists as an effort to forestall government action.

BERLIN, Sept. 21.—Two days and a night in a Russian guard-house have left me convinced the Soviet G. I. is a nasty customer. He isn't bright, and he isn't clean—but he is tough and he knows it.

There isn't much discipline among Soviet troops from what I saw. But the Red army men know how to endure hardships without complaint. They eat little, and stand guard duty for 24 hours, and they think nothing of it.

I learned about the Russians the hard way. They arrested me as I started to photograph a Soviet checkpoint less than half-a-mile from the mountain citadel of Soviet Military Governor Marshal Vasily Sokolovsky.

Crowds of Germans milled about, from among them Russian troops emerged, tommy-guns unslung, and came toward me. I didn't try to run when they ordered me to come along with them.

Thirty Parents Before Alderman In School Battle

HARRISBURG, Sept. 21.—(INS)—The Moosic borough school district today haled 30 parents before a Scranton alderman and charged them with keeping their children away from school to protest a consolidation program.

"Let them serve all the warrants they care to, that's what we want," said Mrs. Patrick Laporte, spokeswoman for the group.

Approximately 70 children have failed to attend classes during the fall term because parents refused to permit them to attend school at Greenwood which is a considerable distance from the abandoned Moosic borough building.

The parents are scheduled to be arraigned tonight for violating the state's compulsory education law.

PRESIDENT TRUMAN TO SPEAK TONIGHT IN SALT LAKE CITY

Saturday night after his whirlwind stump tour of Iowa.

The President's voice was somewhat better when he made his second major attack of his tour against the Republicans from the steps of the Colorado state capitol.

But later in the afternoon, Mr. Truman's voice almost failed him as he spoke to a crowd from the rear platform of his train at Colorado Springs.

The schedule the President has set for himself during the next two weeks gives no evidence of rest or relaxation. His schedule calls for eight to a dozen speeches a day.

Physician Worried

Brig. Gen. Wallace Graham, the President's physician, appeared to be worried about the effect of the strain on Mr. Truman's voice.

Gen. Graham admitted the President is suffering from a slight attack of laryngitis and hereafter must guard against straining his vocal chords.

Whether the President's voice will hold out on his strenuous speaking schedule during the next two weeks was a topic of speculation aboard his train.

Last night, after four speeches in Denver and several others at wayside station stops through Colorado, the Presidential train laid over for the night at Salida, Colo., before leaving early in the morning to cross over into Utah.

The President went to bed early after the last stop of the day at Canon City, Colo.

a revision of rules which presumably would alter the veto power of the great powers.

The assembly of 58 nations, gathering in the huge Palais de Chaillot on the banks of the Seine for its third general session, met in an atmosphere of gloom brought about by the Berlin crisis and the Bernadotte assassination.

To Protect Personnel

Secretary-General Trygve Lie expressed the grief of the whole world over this crime and said he would introduce detailed plans for an armed United Nations guard to protect personnel where local precautions are insufficient.

President Vincent Auriol of France in his inaugural address appealed to the U. N. to organize and use its material force to maintain peace.

In one of the most emotional speeches of his long parliamentary career, Auriol warned that the peace of the world depends upon material as well as moral force.

Need Material Force Also

"On your moral force—that is to say the material force which was fostered by the charter and which has been made necessary as quickly as possible by recent events—depends today the peace of the world."

Secretary Marshall said: "The United States considers that the conclusions contained in the final report of Count Bernadotte offer a generally fair basis for settlement of the Palestine question."

"It is our sincere hope that the parties concerned will realize that their best interests and the interests of the world community will be served by acting in a spirit of fair compromise the judgment of Count Bernadotte."

The keynote condemning "government by force" was sounded in Bernadotte's opening speech.

They asked questions—about what the U. S. is doing in Berlin, about military matters—almost endlessly. Finally they sent me back to the guardroom. There was a couch there, but also a glaring light which was kept shining all night.

From time to time Russians soldiers would stop in to shout insults about President Truman, or praise Henry Wallace.

Later in the morning I was taken to an empty room and forced to submit to grueling questioning.

Almost a day after my arrest, I was offered by first meal—it looked like warmed-over cabbage. I was given no water until 20 minutes before my release Monday night.

What sticks in my mind most is the dirty, smelly Russian G. I., with lice warming over his clothes.

And a guard room incident—a drunken Russian spit at an officer and ripped off his medals, so the officer literally knicked him in the teeth.

GOVERNOR DEWEY FOLLOWS PRESIDENT INTO DENVER

New York governor was certain to make the most of GOP interest in problems of the west.

Paul E. Lockwood, Dewey's secretary, announced, that Dewey would "pledge an administration that understands our land and water problem and that will keep our country strong as it works earnestly for peace in the world."

Opens Campaign

Dewey opened his campaign with a slogan policy that there will be "no profit for aggressors" in a Republican administration which he promised would "house clean" in Washington.

His major opening speech was delivered at Des Moines, Ia., last night, after earlier informal talks at Rock Island, Ill., and Davenport, Ia.

As in other states with Republican senatorial contests, Dewey planned to give what help he could to Colorado's GOP senatorial candidate William F. Nicholson, who is opposing veteran Democratic Sen. Edwin C. Johnson.

The Colorado race is important to Dewey, lest it contribute to a return of Democratic control in the upper chamber—a possibility feared by some Republican leaders.

Mr. Truman beat Dewey into Colorado by one day, lashing out at the Republicans for what he called "under cover sabotage of the west" while the Republican candidate was making his initial campaign promises in Iowa.

Will Not Slug It Out

But there was no expectation that Dewey would slug it out with the president along the lines of the bitter 1944 campaign. There were indications that the governor regards himself as in the favorable position occupied by the late President Roosevelt four years ago—and intends to keep his end of the campaign on a high plane.

Dewey's special train headed west from Des Moines to North Platte, Neb., where Nicholson and other Colorado Republican leaders awaited his arrival for the ride through their state.

Platform speaking stops were scheduled for Julesburg, Sterling, Fort Morgan, Greeley, Lupton and Brighton, Colo., before Dewey arrives in Denver at 5 p. m. (MST).

Dewey carried Colorado in 1944 by a vote of 238,000 to 234,000 for Mr. Roosevelt.

Tonight Dewey will speak in the Denver auditorium and will be introduced by Sen. Eugene Millikin, the GOP "strong man" who prior to the Republican convention was a strong supporter of Sen. Robert A. Taft of Ohio.

hardy Keys dwellers huddled in shelters to wait for the tempest to pass.

They batted down for the blow yesterday afternoon.

An 8:30 a. m. (EST) advisory from the Miami weather bureau spotted the "eye" or center of the Caribbean-born hurricane about 45 miles south of Key West and booming along on a northerly path at six to eight miles an hour.

The fearsome "eye" was due to pass dangerously near Key West early this afternoon and continue on its northern course toward heavily-populated Miami.

Storm Reforms

In its advisory issued at 8:30 a. m. (EST) the Miami weather bureau said the storm reformed in the Straits of Florida after partially breaking up as it roared over Cuba and Havana last night.

At last reports the hurricane, described as small but intense, was swinging along in a northerly direction at the rate of six to eight miles an hour.

Wind velocity along the Florida keys continued steadily to increase as the storm swept forward. At last reports the winds were whirling over the keys at the rate of 75 miles an hour.

Wind gusts of 65 miles an hour were reported in Miami, and high tides were churning up along the shores south of the Florida resort city.

Scurry to Shelter

Warnings that heavy winds were approaching sent residents of Miami and the picturesque chains of southern islands of the Florida keys scurrying to storm shelters as the tempest swept toward the mainland.

Earlier weather forecasts had hoped that the hurricane might change its course. A slowing down of a tropical storm usually indicates a possible change of course.

All along the lower Florida east coast hurricane plans were put in effect. Storm refugees crowded into school buildings and other sturdy-built structures listed by the Red Cross as safe.

Scenes reminiscent of wartime displaced persons camps were enacted in hurricane shelters in Miami, Palm Beach and along the 100-mile-long chain of islands that form the keys group.

Shelters Thrown Open

Fifty-three pre-designated Red Cross shelters were thrown open at 10 p. m., most of them filled up quickly.

Hurricane warning flags fluttered along the lower Florida coasts from Melbourne through the keys on the east shores and from Fort Meyers to Key West on the gulf side of the peninsula.

Precise precautions—which were planned months ago—were taken up and down Miami's palm-lined Biscayne boulevard and along busy Flagler street, smart shops and department stores nailed up drab boards and metal shutters to ward off hurricane damage.

Twenty-three naval vessels rushed from the Key West base and sought safety in the middle gulf.

Full train crews were dispatched to Fort Pierce, on the east coast, to man 50 railroad cars that will be sent into the Everglades farming regions if evacuation is necessary.

The Navy at Key West posted a hurricane edition No. 1 early last night, and families of naval personnel gathered in well-stocked shelters on the base.

will aid out of town motorists who may not be expecting the light and also will aid in preventing needless quick stops when the light is red.

Signs have been erected in the city in several locations giving motorists warning that stop signs are to be encountered ahead. The warnings give the motorist time to be prepared to stop without any difficulty.

Highway workers were all set today to put the finishing touches on the road in Wampum, where work has been progressing for the past few months in replacing the dirt street with a blacktop surface. Blacktop materials are ready to be placed on the street but the rain halted temporarily the work this morning.

As yet, no materials have arrived for the North Jefferson street resurfacing program. Labor difficulties have delayed the long awaited improvement program on the North Jefferson hill. The work will be done by the maintenance crews of the county department.

REINHARD-FRENCH MORNING WEDDING

A lovely early fall wedding united in marriage Miss Helen Lou Reinhard, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Carl B. Reinhard, of Pulaski road, New Castle, R. D. 3, and Robert Coulter French, son of Mr. and Mrs. James C. French, R. D. 2, on Saturday morning, September 18. The young couple exchanged vows at 10 o'clock a. m. in St. Joseph's church before a large gathering of friends and relatives. Rev. Fr. John M. Unger officiated at the double ring ceremony.

Given by her father in marriage, the bride was lovely in a gown of white marquisette and lace. A finger-ring veil of illusion fell from a tiara of lace. She carried a white prayer book adorned with gossamer and pompons.

Miss Charlotte Ann Reinhard, sister of the bride, as maid of honor, wore a gown of pink marquisette and lace with a headdress of lacy crown of tulle and pink plumage. She carried a round arm bouquet of red rosebuds and pompons.

Theodore Laskey served the groom as best man, and Carl F. Reinhard, brother of the bride, and John R. Smith were ushers.

Jude Reinhard and Thomas Reinhard, young brothers of the bride, served as altar boys.

Immediately following the congratulatory period at the church there was a wedding breakfast for the bridal party and immediate families at a local dining room, followed by a reception for 200 guests from 1 to 6 o'clock in the home of the bride's parents. Aides were the brides Clare and Mary Kelly and Eileen Murphy.

The newlyweds left Saturday evening for a wedding trip to an undisclosed destination and upon their return will reside in their newly furnished home at R. D. 5, New Castle.

TREND TO SOCIALISM

America is disturbed about communists but is planting many seeds that will lead to halfway ground between capitalism and communism. The nation has been drifting toward a socialist economy for 15 years.

"We have not socialized industry," says Herbert Hoover, "but we have come close to socializing savings into the government." He explains that the tax burden is so great fundamental savings are being drawn into the Treasury of the United States.

A citizen can now borrow money from 26 different agencies of the government. Already industry is looking more to government controlled agencies, principally the banks, for financing than to individual investors.

At the present pace of taxation individual savings steadily will dry up and private enterprise will be compelled to look to government agencies for capital. American business, still preponderantly private controlled, will then be public controlled. Government operation of industries will then be an accomplished fact.

The surest way to achieve socialism in America is to continue increasing taxes at all levels, national, state and local. Taxes are assessed to finance an increasing amount of government "service"—a trend that can only end in the government running everything. That will be communism.

There are some who are saying that America can not avoid socialism, that the trend is already too thoroughly established. But it can be avoided by reeducation to the principles of private enterprise. That will entail self-reliance instead of dependence on the government.

REPORT ON DIVORCE

A report on divorce procedure presented by a committee of the American Bar Association at the National Conference on Family Life, last May, has now been turned over to the House of Delegates at the association's annual meeting in Seattle. It was presented by Judge Paul W. Alexander of the division of domestic relations of the common pleas court of Toledo. He is chairman of the bar association's committee which fashioned the report.

The report makes many suggestions as to the manner of handling the growing number of divorce cases. The subject is approached constructively in a manner similar to that of cases of juvenile delinquency in later years. It holds that the broken family is not the result of divorce, but divorce is the result of the broken family.

In fact, husbands and wives divorce themselves long before they get into court. In 8,000 cases heard in a mid-western city contracting parties had been separated an average of two years before seeking legal divorce.

Divorce is a result, not a cause, of broken families. The causes include drunkenness, cruelty, desertion, infidelity and other actions formerly regarded as sinful. Marriage fails, the report definitely shows, because the contracting parties fail to make it a success.

HAVE WILL COMPETENTLY DRAWN

Sensational developments which have followed disclosure of the unusual terms of the will of the late Mrs. Eleanor Medill Patterson are affording a spectacle which has all the elements of a shilling shocker—a fight for a fortune, sudden death, charges of fraud and coercion and hinted mystery.

Most of us will watch the Patterson will case closely, principally because of its entertainment value. But we cannot escape the lesson implicit in every line:

Whether our estate is $500 or $5,000,000, it is of the utmost importance suggests the Philadelphia Inquirer, that each of us leaves a will drawn with such clarity that no misunderstanding of our intentions can arise, a document free of faulty wording and faulty witnessing.

This warning must not be lost in the sensationalism surrounding the will by which Mrs. Patterson bequeathed the Washington Times-Herald, of which she was owner and publisher, to a group of executives of the newspaper; the attack on the document by her daughter, the Countess Felicia Giszynski; the death plunge from a hotel window of a former Times-Herald executive and the raising of the question by a newspaper columnist whose daughter might have a possible interest in Mrs. Patterson's estate whether that death was a case of suicide or one of murder.

On the heels of all this came the death of the newspaper's society editor, attributed in a coroner's report to "natural causes," and an exchange of allegations and denials that Mrs. Patterson was of unsound mind when she drafted the will and that its provisions were obtained by fraud, deceit, undue influence, duress and coercion.

The pattern is all too familiar. It emerges time after time in newspaper accounts of the disposition of large estates. But we should realize that it occurs much more frequently and may result in greater hardships in instances where the deceased left only a few hundred or a few thousand dollars.

The right to distribute our assets after our deaths was won by free men only after centuries of struggle. In the interest of protecting our survivors we should have our wills drawn now by a competent attorney.

In View Of News Of The World

By J. C. OESTREICHER, INS Foreign Director

For the first time in its long and checkered history, the Stern gang of Palestine was the focal point of all international attention. Millions of persons throughout the world with a feeling of being personally affected by the assassination of Count Folke Bernadotte are intrigued by the make-up and workings of this organization.

It is stealthy, mysterious and deadly in the extreme. Its members, when caught in acts of violence, make no attempt to defend themselves.

Its leadership boasts of its crimes. Its implacable hatred of Great Britain and its determination to achieve by any means whatever to bring about its aims.

Probably no underground organization in modern history has had a counterpart to this group of fanatics, apparently recruited from the four corners of the globe.

Professed representatives appear not only in Jerusalem and in Tel Aviv, but in London, Paris and Cairo.

Signed or unsigned communications are delivered to newspapers and correspondents; there are telephone calls telling of past or intended deeds.

The Stern Gang came into being to public attention in 1944 when some of its members murdered Lord Moyne, then British high commissioner in Palestine, as he was leaving his offices.

Made Deliberate Attacks In ensuing months, it made deliberate attacks upon a British troops. Officers and non-commissioned men were kidnapped and murdered. Some were humiliated, others stabbed or bludgeoned to death.

And in each case, the Stern gang, in the method of the far more pleasing fictional character Arsene Lupin who left his trademark behind him, the attackers decked the corpses with notes proclaiming their pride in the act.

Long ago the Stern group was known as the Jewish underground. Jewish authorities in Palestine and its latest action—or that of a faction allied to it—has been condemned in most blistering fashion by Israeli Foreign Minister Moshe Shertok and his colleagues.

Shocked World But the Bernadotte affair which shocked the entire world and led the United Nations into an unprecedented tribute of regret and honor to the Swedish nobleman's memory proved that the organization has yet to be smuffed out.

Its actual membership has been estimated as low as 300 hard-core men and as high as 1,000. Their names all are pseudonyms.

Some of them have been in the past on the list of the British crown. The Stern group dates back to 1940 when Vladimir Jabotinsky leader of the Revisionist movement in British-mandated Palestine died.

The World and the Mud Puddles

AS IT SHOULD BE

It is reported from Philadelphia that the reason Governor Warren of California, who rejected nomination for the Vice Presidency four years ago, accepted second round in the election this year was a statement from Governor Dewey that he proposed to strive for constitutional amendment making the Vice President a member of the executive Cabinet and presiding duties and responsibilities in accordance with the post. This explanation is reasonable. Governor Warren is not the type of official to submit voluntarily to conglomeration to the oblivion which has overtaken so many Vice Presidents in our recent history.

Whether constitutional amendment would be necessary, as Governor Dewey seems to feel, or what form such an amendment would take, in order to confer proper status upon the Vice Presidential office we are not informed. Even without such an amendment, it would be feasible for the chief executive to take adequate steps to make the Vice President a consultant in all important matters, to include him in all cabinet discussions and to give him prestige as a liaison officers with Congress.

Wielded Power And Influence In the nation's beginnings the Vice Presidency was awarded to the "runner-up" in the presidential election. As second choice of the people, the Vice President wielded substantial power and influence. The Vice President in some instances became the logical successor to the President in the popular imagination. Over a period of years the office was relegated to a perfunctory position and for several generations it has been regarded as a meaningless appendage of the executive.

Under modern conditions, the Presidency has been a man-killing job. There has been too much of those administrations in which the executive has chosen to assume all the burden and detail not only of his own office, but those of his own cabinet officials. A good executive, immune to personal glorification and intent on efficient functioning of government, could easily lighten his own load and promote greater efficiency in government, by placing a large share of the responsibility upon an able and trusted assistant in the Vice Presidency.

In proposing the extension of Vice Presidential duties and responsibilities, Governor Dewey is merely advocating a return to the original concept of the makers of the Constitution. Many times the nation has been skating on thin ice because of mediocrity and incompetence in the second office within the gift of the voters. If Governor Dewey's idea can be put into practice, we shall be writing ourselves good insurance to cover vital emergencies.

It adopted the name "Fighters For Freedom of Israel" and divorced itself from the Irgun Zvai Leumi, then an underground but more or less moderate Jewish army, and the latter Hagannah, which now is the official militia of the Israeli State.

Its founder was a man named Avram Stern, who according to the organization was murdered by British police in his own home in February, 1942. To his followers, Stern was a martyr who was not accorded a chance to surrender.

The Parent Problem

By Garry C. Myers, Ph. D.

TYPEWRITER A HELP TO STUDENTS

The typewriter is desirable equipment for the high school and college student. There are notes to be written in high school and college. Such work wins a higher grade from the teacher, as a rule, when typed than when in poor handwriting, and most youths don't write by hand very legibly. Indeed, they themselves may find it difficult and discouraging to read for review their own notes. The unattractive appearance of these notes makes the less stimulating for thinking. Ordinarily of notes may favor orderliness of thinking.

Incidentally, most parents would find letters from their son or daughter at college more legible if typed. Here I recall, regretfully, the letters I used to scrawl to my father and mother. I think I was often more concerned about getting these letters written than about my parent who had to read them. I sometimes wish I could be back in those days when they were alive, supposing I would be less selfish and more thoughtful about them. I wish teachers of the upper grades and junior high might make their students want to write by hand more neatly and legibly, since it will be a long while before the average youth can own a typewriter.

Could Buy Typewriter With the mounting cost of going to college, most college students can't afford a typewriter. But many more than could if they cut costs on less important matters, especially on luxuries. Many other students could afford a typewriter if they and their parents sensed its usefulness.

In high schools which have business courses very few students elect typing because they plan to use the skill directly in a vocation. But many bright students planning to go on to college might easily and profitably find time to elect a course or two in typing. It might prove useful to them all the rest of their lives.

Learns Properly Of course almost anybody can learn to type. His own crude way. Yet he rarely will acquire a high degree of speed and accuracy unless he learns in proper fashion. See the time and energy he may waste for want of skill, not to mention his usually inferior quality of typing.

I can type only fairly well. I still make some of the same mistakes I made thirty years ago. If only I had learned then to type properly, I would take a course in typing now but I just lack the necessary drive to choose the discipline. Youths rarely have such inertia. I entreat them: Learn to type well.

For the child in the early grades who reverses letters and the like in spelling, a typewriter can be very useful. The machine always moves correctly from left to right. Many other grade-school children can find spelling and reading more fascinating if allowed to copy sentences or words from a book or words which the parent spells for them slowly. The time will come when children will learn to type at school as early as the fifth or sixth grade.

Hints On Etiquette

Don't talk about yourself all the time. Show an interest in the person or persons to whom you are talking.

Mr. Truman is off now on his longest trip . . . He may not win but he will have a lot more names for his short-snorter bill.

He and Governor Dewey have teletypes aboard their trains and can get in touch with each other at anytime if A. T. & T. is willing to carry such language.

It isn't that they dislike each other but you can't win by loving.

No Control Of Senate

WASHINGTON, Sept. 21.—In the effort to whip up interest in what seems to be a most unequal race, a great deal is being written about the struggle for control of the Senate next year. Much of this speculation is mere wordage, since the fact is that neither party has exercised control over the Senate, in the broadest meaning of the word, for many years.

The Senate is a collection of individualists, often rugged individualists. These individualists do not take to party discipline and fairly frequently they thumb their noses at party whips.

In a limited sense, of course, a Republican administration would have an advantage in a Senate majority, however slim the margin. It would mean that the Republican majority could organize and name their own ranking Senators to committee chairmanships.

The chairman exert a powerful influence over the machinery of the Senate. They can block legislation or push it through at high speed if they so desire.

About Extent of Advantage This, however, is about the extent of the advantage. Party disciplinarians cannot enforce party regularity in the Senate in behalf of a program. When the word control is used in that sense, as it often is by pressure groups anxious to have a Republican administration go down the line for their own highly specialized objectives, it is simply a fiction.

On the Democratic side, the retirement of Pappy O'Daniel of Texas is a decided gain. He will be replaced by Representative Lyndon B. Johnson, who made an excellent record in the House. The defeat in the primary of Senator Tom Stewart of Tennessee was likewise a gain. It is probably that he will be succeeded by Rep. Estes Kefauver, who gave the first intimation of his life to Boss Crump of Memphis. Even though the Dewey-Warren ticket should carry Tennessee, there is a good chance that enough voters will scratch the ballot to vote for Kefauver on the basis of his liberal record.

Independent Republicans and Democrats working together may be a kind of third force in the new Senate. A great deal will depend on the course of the new presidential election.

Third Force Such a third force composed of independents and liberals in both Houses would be a good thing.

Standard Of Pulchritude

At first I thought I would take a more severe line with the judges of the Miss America beauty contest recently completed at Atlantic City and chide them for not having come up with a more glamorous specimen than Miss Beatrice Shopp of Hightstown, N.J., as the winner for 1948.

But come to reflect upon it, the arbiters were quite right in their selection from what I can make out from the photographs. They really followed the advertised title of their promotion. After all, they were not selecting Miss "Oh-boy-oh-boy" of 1948, but Miss America.

Third Party Is Losing Ground

Such Is Deduction From Third Party Candidates'
Withdrawals In State

OTHER NEWS OF STATE AFFAIRS

HARRISBURG, Sept. 21.—(INS)—Eleventh hour withdrawal of a number of Progressive party candidates in Pennsylvania is believed an indication by many Republicans and Democrats that Henry A. Wallace's "third" party is losing ground fast. . . . a Democrat described the withdrawals as "desertions of a sinking ship." . . . The "Progressives," however, refused to admit loss of following. . . . Instead, they accelerated their publicity campaign. . . . Party headquarters at Harrisburg scheduled meetings in four major Pennsylvania cities for Wallace next month and an appearance in a fifth for U. S. Sen. Glen Taylor, the vice presidential candidate. . . . Wallace is slated to carry his campaign for president to Pittsburgh October 18, speak in Philadelphia and Reading the following day and campaign at Wilkes-Barre October 20, according to State Party Chairman J. W. Gitt. . . . an appearance at Hungarian Hall, Bethlehem has been scheduled for Friday of this week for Taylor. . . . In addition to his speaking schedule, Wallace will hold in "shop" meetings and conferences with trade union, farm and independent business leaders," Gitt has reported.

The state added a Swedish consulting engineer to its list of foreign visitors seeking to learn American engineering methods. . . . He is Ingmar Gullstrom, of Stockholm, representing his government. . . . Gullstrom visited the health department to study Pennsylvania methods of treating industrial wastes under the clean streams program. . . . Arrangements were made for him to visit a number of industries operating treatment plants.

Philadelphians are waging an all-out war against rats. . . . The city has joined in the national urban rat control campaign as part of its program to clean up the city. . . . Philadelphia's bureau of municipal research reports in its weekly publication that of 12,303 buildings and dwellings surveyed, 4107 had rats "either reported or observed in them." . . . The survey area covered a seventh of the total city area and embraced a 20 per cent sample, the bureau said. . . . "That part of the city bounded by Poplar, Vine, Sixth streets and the Delaware river is an excellent harbor for rats," it asserted. . . . within this survey area, 30 per cent of the inhabited buildings had "defective refuse containers." 20.2 per cent had accumulated garbage while 27.5 per cent had accumulated other waste attractive to rodents, it was reported.

The Pennsylvania Cancer Society has set up a speakers bureau to augment its campaign to make the public cancer conscious. . . . Forty-two speakers are listed for addresses to professional groups such as doctors and specialists on phases of tumors and cancer. . . . Twenty-three other physicians will be available to address lay organizations.

Newsman pricked up their ears when a participant in the Northeastern Poultry Producers show at Harrisburg said he had come to town on the train with "Dewey and Warren." . . . Predicts Meat To Be Plentiful In Coming Two Years

NEW YORK, Sept. 21.—(INS)—Prediction that meat will be extremely plentiful in 1949 and 1950 was made Monday by J. F. Krey, chairman of the board of American Meat Institute.

The executive, addressing the opening session of the American Meat Institute's 43rd Annual Convention, at the same time, decried what he termed the "curtailment complex" of many officials. Krey told the representatives of 650 packing and processing companies that an "economy of scarcity is completely unworkable," adding:

"Now we have what looks like the largest corn crop on record and the second largest wheat crop. While this is a blessing—it brings with it the threat of surpluses and talk of curtailment.

"Too many people in this country have a curtailment complex. As soon as it appears that downward price adjustments are in order, they are ready to pull in their horns."

The AMI board chairman called for the encouragement of a "positive program" for the livestock and meat industry which will be based on "abundance rather than scarcity."

Another speaker at the convention, J. P. H. Perry, vice president of the Turner Construction Co. forecast that building construction costs will remain high during the next five years.

He told the meat executives that "to wait for a break in the cost of building may be a long wait."

Hold Man In West For Questioning In Boston Murder

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 21.—(INS)—Walter D. Powell, 28, wanted for questioning in Boston, Mass., in connection with the murder of Jacob E. Kuhn, an antique dealer, was held by San Francisco police today on a charge of being a fugitive from justice.

Powell said Powell is specifically accused of passing a worthless check for $3,400 in Boston for a foreign-made car.

He was driving the car when arrested by traffic officers at a downtown San Francisco street intersection. The arresting officers said he admitted giving a worthless check for the car but declined to discuss the murder of Kuhn.

Powell said he had been staying with friends in Oakland, across the bay from San Francisco.

Boston authorities had sent telegrams to police departments of all principal Pacific coast cities asking Powell's arrest.

Protest Arrest Of Americans

BUDAPEST, Sept. 21.—(INS)—U. S. Minister Selden Chapin protested today the arrest of two American citizens on charges of "sabotaging" the output of the Hungarian-American Oil company.

Chapin said that the "unusual circumstances surrounding the arrests" have been reported to Washington.

The men taken into custody last Saturday are Karl Rudemann and George Benneville, heads of the company which is a subsidiary of the Standard Oil Company of New Jersey.

The charges brought by the Hungarian Ministry of Interior said that the men admitted sabotage by deliberately reducing the company's output.

British Warships Being Refitted

LONDON, Sept. 21.—(INS)—The London Daily Mail said today that Britain's Royal Dockyards have been ordered to reduce further contracts for work on civilian vessels and to concentrate on refitting and overhauling British warships.

The move was considered another step in the British preparedness program, stepped-up recently in view of the critical international situation.

The newspaper said that some 1,000 warships of the British reserve fleet are scheduled to be refitted before April. There were said to include destroyers, frigates, sloops and submarines.

Lawrence County Shows Largest Increase Of Any County In State

Last year, only 13 such accidents were reported from the county. The number of motor vehicle deaths had doubled early in the summer, the coroner stated, and is now on its way towards troubling last year's figures.

House Speaker Martin Foresees Big G.O.P. Victory

By WILLIAM E. ZIMMERMAN
(U. S. Staff Correspondent)

WASHINGTON, Sept. 21.—House Speaker Martin declared Monday that the GOP expects to break the Solid South in the presidential election and carry all but possibly three states elsewhere in the nation.

Martin declined to concede that President Truman will even carry his home state of Missouri. For that matter, he is not convinced that Mr. Truman will carry three states in the North and West.

The Massachusetts Republican stated:

"From information that I have received, I can't point my finger at three states outside the Solid South that the President will carry."

On the same basis, he thinks Gov. Thomas E. Dewey, the Republican presidential nominee, will carry the southern state of Virginia and Tennessee and has a good chance of obtaining a majority in North Carolina.

Martin was asked in an interview what three states he thinks Mr. Truman will carry in the North.

He replied:

"I can't point to any three and say I think Mr. Truman will carry them. But they (the Democrats) point to Rhode Island, Montana and Utah."

He forecast a gain of 20 seats for the Republicans in the House and no change in the GOP's numerical strength in the Senate.

In the 1946 election the Republicans won a 58-vote majority over the Democrats in the House. The present lineup in the Senate is 51 Republicans and 45 Democrats.

Martin sees no need for a special session of Congress after the November 2 election, despite some conjecture along that line, barring a sudden international emergency that would require legislative action.

He declined to comment on how the Republicans view the campaign of Henry A. Wallace, Progressive party candidate. From other GOP sources, however, it was learned that the Republicans expect Wallace to receive four to five million votes nationally, dependent upon how many state ballots he appears on.

MARKING SILVER
Question: I have been married for several years but have only now completed my set of silverware. Please give me information about marking it. What initials should be placed thereon and does it make any difference on which side of the handle the marking is placed?

Answer: Before marriage a bride's silverware should be marked with her maiden initials, but according to present custom silver obtained after marriage is marked with either the wife's three initials—"M" for Mary, "T" for "Thomas" (her maiden surname) and "S" for Smith her husband's surname or simply "S" for Smith.

Since the sharp edge of the knife must be turned toward the plate when the table is set, the marking should be placed with this thought in mind.

Question: Is it considered rude for a man to suggest to his partner that they sit down when he feels that he has danced sufficiently and the orchestra continues playing?

Answer: This suggestion should come from the woman and not her partner. It is always the privilege of the woman and not the man to complain of fatigue and suggest "sitting out" the rest of the dance. Her partner should continue until either she or the music stops, unless, of course, he is ill and cannot go on.

Question: I am to be an usher at a wedding. Should I give the bridegroom a gift? I am a friend of his and not of the bride.

Answer: You need give no present to the bridegroom. Send a gift to the bride. It may be something for their new home, something she will share with her husband but it must be addressed to her only.

Present your problems to Miss Markel who will promptly mail personal replies to questions from readers enclosing stamped, self-addressed envelopes.

Report Franco In Conferences On Monarchy Return

WASHINGTON, Sept. 21.—(INS)—Spanish sources reported that Generalissimo Franco conferred a second time over the weekend with the Spanish pretender Juan on conditions for the return of the monarchy to Spain.

The meeting was said to have taken place off the coast of France on a Spanish war vessel.

The items reportedly discussed by Franco and the pretender included the education of Juan's son, the Prince of Asturias, in Spanish schools. The Prince of Asturias is the heir apparent to the throne of Spain.

Also discussed were questions of a provisional regency to cover the period between Franco's withdrawal as head of the government and the return of the monarchy.

It was said that two or three regents might be appointed to help govern Spain in the interval but it was not yet known whether the Caudillo would himself insist on being one of the regents.

President Of Trades And Labor Assembly Defends
Rights Of Laboring Man

SAYS STRIKES ARE LAST RESORT

In an interesting address before members of the New Castle Rotary Club, at their noon luncheon meeting, in The Castleton, Monday, Ralph Audino, president of the Trades and Labor Assembly defended the position of labor.

His address was to have been from the subject "Do Patriotic Americans Have The Right To Strike" but Mr. Audino stated that it was impossible to discuss this subject on that basis.

He stated that he has never been in favor of strikes, but that sometimes strikes are essential, and the only way out of labor's problems.

Favors Arbitration

He is more in favor of a county arbitration committee made up of men of the community, who know both sides of the question. He stated that he is convinced that more can be accomplished by arbitration if both sides to the question are willing to be fair.

Referring to the Taft-Hartley Act, he stated that there are many things about the act which are good, but on the other hand, there are many things which are bad. If a union is unable to secure demands which it believes are fair and just, then it is supposed to file notice 60 days in advance of the termination of its contract. Next comes a 30 day waiting period, after which comes a cooling off period. It is necessary to file a strike notice before the questions at issue can come up for discussion. As a result, strike demands have doubled under the Taft-Hartley law.

He stated that labor would rather not keep wages soaring, but he stated that it was the only way the laboring man can exist. He said labor is unable to keep up with the mad soaring of prices. The laboring man, he stated, wants to live humanly and respectfully.

Another provision of the Taft-Hartley act does not permit contributions to political parties. However, he said, this can be evaded like most other laws. There is nothing which prohibits a labor union from giving one of its officers a thousand dollars for organizational work, and this officer in turn, as a private citizen can make a contribution to a political party.

Another provision, which he stated labor resents, is the singling out of labor, and forcing them to sign cards that they do not belong to the Communist party. He stated that he himself is against Communism, but feel resentful that he is singled out, and hundreds of other citizens do not have to make any declaration in this regard.

Quoting from the Harvard Review, he stated that figures showed the National Manufacturers Association spent over five millions of dollars in one year, most of which went to promote the Taft-Hartley Labor Act. They are only trying to pull the wool over labor's eyes, he stated, and this will only lead to an increase of labor's membership and finances.

In conclusion, he stated he had found from experience, that the top management in industry is essentially fair, but that it was underlings, out trying to make a record for themselves, who cause most of labor's troubles.

U. S. Seeks To Buy Deshon Hospital

PITTSBURGH, Sept. 21.—(INS)—A motion by the United States that it be allowed to purchase the Deshon General Hospital in Butler from the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania was being reserved for decision today by Federal Judge R. M. Bissell.

A United States assistant attorney told the court that former Governor Arthur H. James had agreed in 1945 to sell the hospital to the federal government for $2,512,297. The Commonwealth is asking $4,000,000 however, and claims that the agreement entered into by Gov. James is not binding on succeeding administrations.

Some 15 county detectives who have been investigating racket locations in the district are standing by to be heard today.

Five witnesses were called Monday, including Lieut. Lawrence J. Maloney, head of the Pittsburgh "racket squad", who had appeared before the grand jury a total of seven times thus far.

The others who appeared Monday included Edward Steele, of Library, a sales manager for a coin machine company; Rosie Rado, a salesman who is said to be a friend of Councilman Joseph A. McArdle; Anthony De Cesare, described as a real estate dealer, and assistant District Attorney Craig T. Stockdale.

Covered Bridges Still In Service In Large Numbers

Covered bridges, familiar landmarks of serene country roads, are still an important factor in our country's transportation system. A recent study by the American Road Builders' Association reveals that those favorite spooning sites for grandma and grandpa have more than proved their worth, both economically and through records of service.

Contrary to popular belief, these photogenic antiques did not originate in the United States. The first in this country was built in Pennsylvania about 1771. From there the strain spread to New England and later across the continent and around the world. However, styles changed and a Vermont would hardly recognize an Oregon covered bridge with a green roof and Gothic windows, or a California model with an iron roof. The idea of covering bridges to protect the timbers has persisted. Iron nails and bolts have replaced wooden pegs, but the load capacity of the sturdy old bridges has been found to be substantially above that anticipated by the original designer. Some have been known to float down a flooding stream and later be restored to its original abutments or relocated.

Vermont's Most Widely Known Although Vermont's covered bridges are perhaps the most widely known, the Green Mountain State ranks behind Ohio, Pennsylvania and Indiana in having the most still in service. Over 1,200 bridges are being used in these states.

That the bridges are still being constructed in some states is a matter of record. About 10 years ago, the people of Bennington, N. H., were granted a request for a covered bridge which was the first to be constructed in New Hampshire in 80 years. Canada still champions the style and continues to build them.

Highwaymen used them as favorite hangouts but travelers often found out that the robber was the gate-keeper of a privately-owned toll-bridge. Today, private owners and townships make these bridges into museums and storehouses, thus keeping for posterity those bridges that are no longer useful for transportation.

Pardon Board Opens Sessions

HARRISBURG, Sept. 21.—(INS)—The state pardons board today opened its three-day September session with 157 clemency appeals listed for review.

The only capital case was continued indefinitely when Gov. James H. Duff last week granted a respite to Edward Hough, 33, of Philadelphia, one of three men convicted of the slaying of Patrolman Cecil Ingling during a grocery store holdup January 30, 1947.

The respite until January 3, 1949, was Hough's fourth stay of execution. He originally was scheduled to die in the electric chair at Rockview penitentiary March 20. The latest stay was granted pending the outcome of an appeal to the supreme court by David Almeida, also sentenced to death for the Ingling slaying. The third convicted man, James F. Smith, 24, was sentenced to life imprisonment for the slaying.

October 11 Named Memorial Day For General Pulaski

WASHINGTON, Sept. 21.—(INS)—President Truman today designated October 11 a Memorial Day for General Casimir Pulaski, Polish count who died fighting for the American cause in the Revolutionary War.

The President's proclamation pointed out that October 11 is the 160th anniversary of the death of Count Pulaski, "son of a foreign nation, who gave his life for the cause of American freedom."

The President recalled that the general died while leading the celebrated Pulaski Legion at the siege of Savannah in 1790, bringing "to a heroic end, at the youthful age of 31 years of life which had given promise of further glorious achievements on behalf of humankind."

He said that the Pole "bequeathed to all liberty-loving people a tradition of fidelity to principle which remains an inspiration to our own generation."

Huge Rose Garden Now In Full Bloom

HERSHEY, Pa., Sept. 21.—(INS)—The Hershey rose garden with its 57,000 plants in more than 775 varieties is now in its autumnal glory and will continue blooming until the first killing frost.

In autumn the colors are deeper, more brilliant and the tints that are unsuspected in the spring appear when the days and nights are cooler. Then, too, the blooms are larger and last longer. Also, roses are more petaled in autumn than in spring.

The Hershey rose garden is now a great parade of roses of the world—seven acres of beauty.

The rose garden is free to the public as is parking also.

The distance between the highest point of land and the lowest point in the ocean is approximately 12 miles.

Producer Jerry Wald, who has made a lot of money for Warner Brothers, doesn't look much farther than his nose for movie stories.

Declaring that he aims to "make optical stuff, not typical," he merely turned to the front page of the batch of newspapers he reads every day.

He thinks truth still can't be beat, which is why he was busy making war stories while the war was still headlines.

Everybody was making musicals during those years, believing that the public wanted "escape" stuff. His box office receipts proved that they wanted, and could take, realism.

He read a story in a Los Angeles newspaper the other day, and it clicked. Today he has investigated the case and is ready to go to work on the script.

When the headlines fall him Wald turns to flop plays and flop books which he makes into top productions.

rest of the world!

PERHAPS you think of your railroad solely as a means of getting from place to place. True, it's that, but it is so much more!

For the Erie is the great carrier of everything that keeps your community alive and prosperous. It brings the food to your dinner table, the materials that make a home. It hauls the coal to keep your industries going, and the raw material and parts that your local industries turn into finished products. Then your railroad carries away these finished products to communities all over America as well as directly to the pier for shipment overseas.

On the job 24 hours a day, the Erie is your link with the rest of the world—and by its efficient and faithful service contributes progress and prosperity to your community.

Strive To Rescue 30 Crewmen Aboard Greek Freighter

NEW YORK, Sept. 21.—(INS)—A Coast Guard cutter and a tugboat ploughed through the rough waters of the North Atlantic early today to rescue 30 men of the Greek freighter Orion aground and on fire in the straits of Belle Isle.

It was not known whether the men were adrift or still aboard the blazing 8,000-ton vessel. Earlier reports said the "crew is abandoning ship under the captain's orders."

Coast Guard headquarters in New York said eight seriously burned crewmen had been taken off the stricken ship by a sea-air rescue squad and removed to Grenfell hospital at St. Anthony, Newfoundland. Their condition was reported as critical.

The true ownership of a patented invention may be contested within two years after the patent has been issued.

Health Talks

By DR. W. A. WOMER
City Health Superintendent

WHAT DO YOU KNOW?
Children do not learn arithmetic all in one day. College students do not expect to learn French in a couple of lessons.

A chef does not learn how to cook by hearing some one talk about fried eggs.

It is desirable and helpful to know about sanitation and good health and disease.

It is good to know how to keep healthy and to prevent disease.

Spelling and reading and geography and music are very helpful subjects. All of our citizens should know about them.

Health and sanitation need some study too. It might be a good idea for children to receive regular instruction in these subjects in all the grades.

It might help them to get along more comfortably.

Recognizing the urgent need for cooperation in raising the funds for necessary local social and welfare agencies, the group came to a unanimous agreement on methods of conducting solicitations in industry.

General Chairman Sidney L. Lockley expressed gratification at the close of the meeting for the fine spirit shown. R. G. Caruthers is chairman of the industrial division, while Ralph Audino and Jack Grizzle are co-chairmen.

Driver Is Injured In Auto Accident

J. E. Thompson, West Madison Avenue, Suffers Injuries In Three-Car Accident

J. E. Thompson of 401 West Madison Avenue, is in the New Castle hospital, being treated for injuries received in a three-car accident at Mahoning Avenue and Liberty Street at 4 o'clock Monday. His injuries are minor, having suffered bruises of the arm. However, he is still confined in the hospital.

According to a police report, a pick-up truck of the Kirk Hutton Company, driven west on Mahoning Avenue, stopped briefly, then entered the intersection of Liberty Street, in front of the car operated by James Barber, 410 North Cedar Street.

Barber applied his brakes, he reports, to avoid a collision with the truck, which was in Barber's path. Barber's car swerved to the right, the rear of his car going into the northbound lane, into the path of Thompson's car.

The cars operated by Thompson and Barber collided and Thompson's car, caromed against a car driven by Dale Smith of New Brighton. Thompson's car struck a guy wire of a utility pole and turned over on its right side.

Pete Isaac of Reynolds and Mill streets, extricated Thompson from the car and he was rushed to the hospital.

New England Plants Moving To Carolinas

PROVIDENCE, R. I., Sept. 21.—(INS)—New England industry was faced today with a blazing indictment of Royal Little, president of Textron, Inc., which recently announced the closing of two mills at Nashua, N. H.

Little told a meeting of the National Association of Cost Accountants that New England was "living in the past," and "riding the coattails of our grandfathers."

The industrialist, who faces a congressional committee at Nashua, N. H., tomorrow, said northern industry was moving elsewhere because New England workers turned out less finished goods than their counterparts in the south.

Expanding In South

He said his firm was embarking on a $12,000,000 expansion program in North and South Carolina and Puerto Rico because Textron had found that "efficient southern mills" are producing more goods than those in the north.

Little cited lower costs of labor, fuel, power, freight, compensation insurance, payroll taxes, and local taxes as favoring southern operations against the north.

A congressional subcommittee, headed by Sen. Charles H. Tobey (R) of New Hampshire, took up the closing of the two Nashua mills after Gov. John O. Pastore of Rhode Island and others had protested the shutdown.

Concern Over Court Decision On Basing Point

WASHINGTON, Sept. 21.—(INS)—The commerce department expressed "vital concern" today over the inflationary aspects of a supreme court decision barring basing point prices in the cement industry.

Commerce Secretary Sawyer declared that the ruling also may result in widespread shifts in the location of factories with a "consequent migration" of workers.

Sawyer took special note of the actions of many businessmen who believe that the high court's decision has outlawed the basing system completely and are planning to change their prices to conform with the order.

The commerce secretary warned that this would have "severe repercussions" on smaller business enterprises besides adding new pressure on inflation.

AVOID LONG BOB
Women who are inclined to be stocky and on the short side, should avoid wearing their hair in a long bob, as it tends to make their necks look thick. Short, tailored coiffures are far above attractive.

Safety-Training At Trucker Meet

Highway Safety And Driver Training Discussed By Teacher College Men

Safety and driver training were stressed Monday night at the monthly meeting of Lawrence County chapter, Pennsylvania Motor Truck Association. The dinner meeting was held in The Castleton.

Ford Hess, of the faculty of Slippery Rock State Teachers College spoke on general safety practices upon the highway. He cited facts and statistics showing the alarming death and accident total and asked the co-operation of the truck industry in reducing accidents through safety.

Lloyd Peters, in charge of driver training at Slippery Rock State Teachers' College discussed the plan now in use in Pennsylvania high schools. He said 225 high schools had the driver training plan in effect and that already a lower percentage of accidents were reported from drivers who had had training.

"The safest driver on the highway today is the commercial vehicle," said Mr. Peters. "We have found the commercial drivers are men of judgment on the highway, but we believe they should be checked from time to time as to physical condition, reaction time and other elemental qualifications."

Mr. Peters was informed that periodic inspection of drivers was common practice among drivers for PMTA truck concerns.

What To Do For That Sluggish, Down-and-Out Feeling

Remember the time when you could eat like a horse, bubbled-over with energy, felt happy as a lark? Was it not because you liked to eat—didn't know what digestion was, felt strong as an ox? As age advances the "old stomach" and the ever-changing blood" need help. Now you may again release vibrant energy to every muscle, fibre, cell.

Every day—every hour—millions of tiny red-blood-cells must pour forth from the marrow of your bones to replace those that are worn-out. A low blood count may affect you in several ways: no appetite, underweight, no energy, a run-down condition, lack of resistance to infection and disease.

To get real relief you must keep up your blood strength. Medical authorities, by analysis of the blood, have by positive proof shown that 555 Tonic is amazingly effective in building up low blood strength in non-organic nutritional anemia. This is due to the 555 Tonic formula which contains special and potent activating ingredients.

Also, 555 Tonic helps you enjoy the food you eat by increasing the gastric digestive juices which it is non-acidically too little or scanty—thus the stomach will have little cause to get balky with blood and give off that sour food taste.

Don't wait! Energize your body with rich, red blood. Start on 555 Tonic now. As vigorous blood surges throughout your whole body, greater freshness and strength should make you eat better, sleep better, feel better, work better, play better, have a healthy color glow in your skin—firm skin, full, healthy blood. Millions of bottles sold. Get a bottle from your drug store. 555 Tonic helps build sturdy health.

Court House

Ballot Contract Awarded Monday

Registration Shows Need
For Several Precincts
Being Divided

OTHER EVENTS IN COURT HOUSE

Ballots for the November 2 election will be printed by the Millery, Pyle and Street Company. On Monday morning the commissioners awarded the contract to the company at its bid of $12.85 per thousand for something in excess of 60,000 ballots. Only two bids were submitted, the other being that of Universal Printing Company at a price of $17 per thousand.

PRECINCTS NEED DIVIDING

Upon the basis of the registration totals compiled by the Permanent Registration Bureau, there are four precincts in the county that should be divided, due to heavy registration.

First in size is the First precinct of the Fifth ward in Ellwood City which has 963 voters registered. This is better than twice what is considered an average precinct, 400 voters.

Next in size is the First precinct of the Second ward in Ellwood City with 824 voters registered. Next comes Bensenville with 793 and fourth is the Seventh precinct of the Second ward in New Castle with 766.

There are precincts in the county with less than 100 voters registered. Lowest in the county is the Third precinct of Wayne township with but 53 registered. The Fourth precinct of Wayne has only 58 votes registered, and Big Beaver Second has but 82. There are a number of totals ranging from 105 to 150.

In election procedure where paper ballots are used, 400 words is considered about as big a vote as a board can handle on, election day and file returns within a reasonable time after the election. At the present time there are 99 precincts in the county and a total of 41,108 registered. This means an average of slightly better than 414 per precinct.

In some townships, Wayne for example, the district is so wide that more precincts are believed needed because of the distance voters have to travel to vote.

In the case of Ellwood City, Bensenville, or New Castle, the precincts are more together and 400 is considered a fair average. This is not to say that a board cannot handle more than 400. In 1928, the Fourth precinct of the Second ward, New Castle had 1,185 voters registered and by closing time 1,165 had voted, thought to be a record for a precinct in this county.

Later the ward was divided into 10 precincts, but by now the Seventh is far above the average.

The total vote compiled by the Permanent Registration Bureau shows some interesting figures. Every precinct in the City of New Castle shows a preponderance of Republican voters, the total being 15,687 Republicans and 4,539 Democrats, better than a three-to-one majority.

Ellwood City shows the same general picture, all precincts being Republican with a total of 3,200 Republicans and 1,515 Democrats, slightly better than two to one Republican.

In the other boros and the townships the Democrats have some precincts, seven in all. Ellport shows 172 Republicans and 245 Democrats. The following townships show a preponderance of Democrats—Mahoning Second, Sanango Third, Washington Second, and the First, Third and Fifth of Wayne.

For the entire county the totals are Republicans 29,390, Democrats 11,315, Prohibitionists 165, no party 184, Independent 42, Socialists 7 (all men) and Progressives 3 (one man and two women).

Five Sets Of Twins At North St. School

Begin Medical Examinations Of Pupils In Grades One, Three And Five On Monday

Teachers at North street school are being kept busy these days wondering which child is which when it comes to teaching three of the five sets of twins that attend the school it was learned in a visit to the school Monday afternoon.

Of the five sets of twins in attendance at the school, three sets are girls, while the other two are boy and girl combinations, which are not difficult to distinguish. One of the sets of twins is in the first grade class.

Physical examinations for grades one, three and five were started on Monday at North street, with the examiners to remain approximately six days before moving on to other schools. The examinations include a general physical check-up with which includes, eyes, ears and teeth as well as other parts of the body. Doctors examining the students include: F. W. Guy, M.D.; T. M. Shaffer, M.D.; Benjamin Levin, D.D.S., and Dr. Thomas J. McFate, Jr.

Slight Decrease In Fire Losses During August

Although fire losses in the United States are running at record high levels, a slight seasonal decrease was recorded in August, 1948, it was announced today by W. E. Mallalieu, general manager of the National Board of Fire Underwriters. August losses were estimated at $49,543,000, a decrease of 2.7 per cent from losses of $50,955,000 in July.

August's losses were 3.5 per cent below the estimated waste of $51,359,000 recorded in the same month last year.

The slight decrease should give the nation little cause for complacency, Mr. Mallalieu said. Fire losses always have declined during the summer months, and have soared again during autumn and winter months as more and more stoves, furnaces and fireplaces are operated during cold weather, and heavier strains put on electrical circuits.

Forest Fire Threats

The threat of severe forest fires due to prolonged dry weather in the northeastern and other states also calls for utmost caution to prevent repetition of the disastrous conflagrations that occurred in Maine last year, he said.

August's losses brought the total for the first eight months of this year to $466,978,000, a sum greater losses for the entire year of 1945. For the past twelve months, the an increase of 8.6 per cent over losses of $853,156,000 for the 12-months period ending August 31, 1947.

The fire loss estimates are reported under fire insurance policies and include an allowance for uninsured and unreported losses.

Record-breaking corn and cotton crops now in sight are and news for the would-be price controllers.

HERE AND THERE IN SPORTS' LAND

MUSKIES are hitting in Pigeon river, north of Potosi, Canada, 35 having been landed in boats by a group of nine New Castle, New Wilmington and Butler fishermen last week. In addition to the muskies, a considerable number of bass and pike were caught. The 35 muskies landed in the boats did not include muskies which were hooked but got away in the water. The group consisted of Kirby Leckley, Harry Leckley, D. Emerick, Ed. Fritz, Jr., Abe Cingensmith and Ralph Force of New Castle; Bill Barbary and Bill Thompson of Butler, and Hance Walker of New Wilmington. Barbary caught a 34-pound muskie, which was 44 inches in length. Fritz, Jr., caught a 10-pound muskie and D. Emerick lost a monster which threw the hook. Force caught the prize pike, a six pounder. Fritz, Jr., caught the prize bass, five pounds, four ounces, and said to have been the largest bass taken this year from Pigeon river. Barbary left his 34-pound muskie at Mackay's lodge, at Potosi, to be mounted and exhibited until he returns next year. Many of the 35 were under-sized, and some others had sores on their bodies. The under-sized and ones with sores were returned to the river. The fishermen report that the muskie catches were made between 11 a. m. and 3 p. m. Unlike other fish, they "hit" during the heat of the day. The monster lost by Emerick leaped out of the water, and fairly danced upon its tail for a time. It leaped again, shooting straight into the air, turned sideways, shook like a willow in a storm then threw the hook, escaping. . . . Bud Kay and a group were fishing several days in the Allegheny river between Franklin and Oil City. They used crabs as bait. They had no luck. They saw another fisherman striding along the edge of the river who had a nice catch. He told them he caught the bass with frogs. Kay and his companions caught a number of frogs, tossed 'em into the stream and caught a nice catch of bass. . . . Tonight is corn roast time at the Harbor, it being the second corn roast for members, wives and children of the Lawrence County Sportsman's Association. One hundred down ears of corn have been bought by the committee. The association will hold its regular meeting at 8 o'clock, after which there will begin. . . . George Budinko of Ambridge caught a 50-inch, 35 pound muskie at Conneaut Lake last week. The fish, said to be the largest taken in Crawford County water this season. Budinko lost a brand new $22.50 casting rod, but George freely admits it was well worth it. The big fish slipped the rod out of the boat into the water as it flopped about. . . . After reading of Pigeon river and Conneaut lake, one gets the fever to try his luck again. . . . Ringnecks may be seen strutting along county highways these days. . . . 'Twent be long until nut season is in. The meat is hickory and walnuts is now becoming hard, according to a test here & there made of several Sunday. . . . There'll be a galaxy of happy youths, 10 years old or under, at Cascade Park, at 7:30 p. m. Wednesday when the youth program committee, headed by Elmer E. Brown of the Lawrence County Council of Sportsmen, will entertain the boys with winners and roasting ears.

BATTLES CERDAN IN JERSEY CITY

Crowd Of 25,000 Expected To Watch Middleweight Championship Fight

By DAVIS J. WALSH
NEW YORK, Sept. 21.—(INS)—The world's middleweight championship, which unaccountably seems to have fallen afoul of the philanthropists, was due for another of its opera bouffe productions tonight, co-starring Champion Tony Zale and French challenger Marcel Cerdan.

This gnarled and hardened old pair of perambulators is expected to draw a crowd of 25,000 for a total gate of $300,000 for their 15-round rendezvous at Roosevelt Stadium, Jersey City. Unfortunately, these were strictly "house" expectations, as vouchsafed by the benign but impulsive Tournament of Champions, Inc., who can think up the quaintest things.

Walcott Gets $5,000
Only yesterday, they paid Jersey Joe Walcott a fee of $5,000 for not fighting on the card. But Cerdan, who's main eventing the promotion, got his $50,000 guarantee cut to $40,000—indirectly, believe it or don't, because Walcott isn't fighting on the card.

He isn't, incidentally, because his worthy opponent, Gus Lesnevich, stubbed his toe while training with night and main and had to forward his regrets. As a result, the management violated all promotional ethics and reduced its $40 ring-side rates to $30.

Yesterday, it reduced Cerdan—approximately to the terms of his original contract, signed before the Walcott-Lesnevich complication set in.

Non-partisan estimates, in fact, placed the crowd at less than 20,000 and the receipts at not more than $200,000, subject of course to last-day sales which, in turn, are subject to weather conditions. The Weather Bureau said it would be clear and cool, but that's subject to correction, too.

Marshall Goldberg Decides To Play

CHICAGO, Sept. 21.—(INS)—The "non-retiring" retirement plan found a new champion today in Mad Marshall Goldberg of the Chicago football Cardinals.

The former University of Pittsburgh all-American announced late last night that he has reconsidered his annual decision to retire from professional football and will play in all of the Cardinals' games both home and away this season, his eighth.

Sportsmen To Hold Corn Roast

Herman Steinbrink, president of the Lawrence County Sportsman's association, today stated that plans are complete for the association's corn roast for members, wives, and children, at the Sportsman's farm, at the Harbor at eight o'clock tonight. One hundred dozen ears of corn will be roasted.

Cleveland Battles Boston Wednesday

By CHARLES EINHORN
(International News Service Sports Writer)
CHICAGO, Sept. 21.—The Boston Red Sox had the stage to themselves today as they sought frantically to defend their pinched position atop the distant American league standings.

Joe McCarthy's Sox still boasted a half-game lead over Cleveland and a one-game edge over New York following a busy Monday during which all three contenders won single games.

Today, while the Indians and Yankees mark time, the Red Sox play the disrespectful Tigers at Detroit. The outcome of the contest will determine whether Boston will be a game ahead of the Indians or tied with them when the Red Sox move into Cleveland for their crucial one-game affair with the Tribe tomorrow.

And it may be well for the Sox to see to it they win today. The Indians are riding a six-game winning streak, and it appears a sound guess that their pitcher against Boston tomorrow will be Mr. Bob Feller, who is still the roughest pitcher in the American league.

Tomorrow's Boston-Cleveland single will end the Red Sox' western tour. Tomorrow night, meanwhile, the Yankees play at Chicago. They play the White Sox a single game Thursday, then repair to New York, where they open a three-game home stand against Boston on Friday.

Red Sox-Yanks Win
The Yanks took the measure of the St. Louis Browns yesterday, thanks in the main to the magnificent Joseph Paul DiMaggio. The final count was 8 to 7, and all DiMaggio did was crack his 39th home run of the season and subsequently, single with the bases loaded in the eighth inning.

The Red Sox came from behind in the third inning and went on to beat the Tigers at Detroit, 7 to 2. Indians Top Macks

In a night game at Cleveland the Indians, winners of 13 of their last 15 games, were out-hit, 14 to 11, but got by the Philadelphia Athletics nonetheless, 6 to 3.

Boston's game with Cincinnati yesterday was rained out and the Cardinals also were idle. The tail-end Chicago Cubs lost their ninth straight game when they were beaten by Brooklyn, 4 to 2.

Pirates Lose Two
As for the Pittsburgh Pirates, they had better forget all about the pennant and concentrate on finishing in the first division. The Bucs, who have lost six straight and are nine games off the pace, are only one game in front of the fifth-place New York Giants.

After losing to the Phillies in the afternoon, when Robin Roberts held them to six hits and three runs in a 2-1 defeat, the Pittsburghers dropped the night game, 7 to 4.

John Davidson Has Top Rifle Score

Nine members of the New Castle Rifle club have completed firing the 30-calibre army qualification course. Top honors to date have gone to John C. Davidson, who scored 184 out of a possible 195.

In the rapid fire string followed three of Davis' 27 rounds failed to hit the bull. Second place is held by W. Thomas, 182, followed by F. Carrigan, 180; W. Adams, 180; C. Brunton, 175; C. Byler, 170, and D. Byler, 169.

Firing of the army course will continue Wednesday evening at 8:30, and practice gallery shoot will be held at the armory on Friday.

Irish Bit Worried About Purdue Game

By LEO FISCHER
(International News Service Sports Writer)

SOUTH BEND, Ind., Sept. 21.—They don't talk about anything but Purdue on the football practice field at Notre Dame.

"That's our opening game," says Coach Frank Leahy, "and we're so worried about it we can't look past next Saturday to the nine other toughies on our schedule."

"We know what we're going to face in Purdue and maybe this great 'Beat Purdue' spirit our lads are showing in practice is like whistling in a graveyard at midnight."

The last night said: "As a matter of fact, I think the only thing that can beat Purdue is overconfidence on the Boilermakers' part. They tell me the Purdue team isn't worried about winning the game at all. They're worried about the size of the score!"

May Lose Three
The whole difference between last year's Notre Dame team and this year's is that in 1947 we had an edge over every team we played. This season we'll go into many games—including our first—on an even basis. All they have to do is play a little better than we do, and we'll get raked up. I think it'll happen two, maybe three times."

Actually, the only spots in which the Irish seem to be under par are tackle and quarterback. From the former position the team has lost only All-Americans Ziggy Szabo and George Connor, but also their first-line replacements, Gasper Urban and George Sullivan.

Tripucka At Quarter
At quarterback, the problem of whether Frank Tripucka can replace the departed Johnny Lujack is the biggest faced by Coach Leahy.

Otherwise, the situation at Notre Dame is well in hand. There are plenty of returning veterans, a handful of sophomores good enough to crack N.D. tradition by making the varsity squad, and a winning spirit and tradition which alone make the team almost invincible on the football field.

BEARS WORKING OUT
William Dominick, president of the Washburn Bears organization announced today that the Bears will have a workout every night this week at 5:30 at the P. & L. E. field.

LADIES TEN PINS
Ladies ten pin league will start Wednesday, September 23. Any girl interested in bowling ten pins should call at the Castle Bowling Alleys at 9 o'clock Wednesday.

Umpire is Art Passarella. The Indians jumped to second place in pennant race by winning the battle 6-3.

Steelers Give Lach Release

CAMBRIDGE SPRINGS, Pa., Sept. 21.—(INS)—Steve Lach, high scoring fullback during the 1947 season, today had his release from the Pittsburgh Steelers.

At the same time, Coach Johnny Michelosen dropped three rookies from the Steeler roster. They were wingback Dick Deranek from Indiana university, tackle Emil Pape from George university, and end Johnny Potkian, one of the Penn State heroes in last year's Cotton Bowl game.

Lach, one of Duke university's all-time greats, last year set an all-time Steeler touchdown record of nine, and ran up an individual score of 34 points. He was second only to Johnny Clement on ground gained with 372 yards in 126 tries.

Plan Conference On Legality Of Seizing Cigarettes

Discuss Matter Of Confiscating Untaxed Cigarettes From Out-Of-State Tourists

HARRISBURG, Sept. 21.—(INS)—The State Justice Department plans to confer today with representatives of the Revenue Department and state police on the legality of confiscating untaxed cigarettes from out-of-state tourists.

Deputy Attorney General George W. Keitel said he would call a conference this afternoon before ruling whether tourists passing through the state are exempt from a statute prohibiting possession of more than 300 cigarettes not bearing the state tax stamp.

The opinion of the Justice Department was sought after scores of tourists protested road blocks at state lines and searching of vehicles by "border patrols" for smokes carried into Pennsylvania from other states.

More than 40 motorists reportedly were fined a total of $1000 when charged with a misdemeanor for possessing a carton or more of untaxed cigarettes.

The legislature enacted the "search and seizure" statute in 1947 to curb cigarette bootlegging after it had raised the tax on smokes from two to four cents a package.
